

FAQ

How do I become a member of the Niagara Frontier Reading Council?

Membership applications for the NFRC can be found on our website www.theNFRC.org.

What is the cost of a membership in the Niagara Frontier Reading Council?

Membership fees vary. They are listed below.

~ Teaching Professionals	$35.00	~NFRC Past President	Complimentary
~ Full-time Students, Parents, Retired Teaching Professionals	$30.00	~First-year Teaching Professional*	Complimentary

* Must submit letter from superintendent indicating appointment to a full-time probationary position. (long-term substitute teaching, change in school districts, grade levels, etc. are not included)

What additional benefits do I receive for becoming a member of this organization?

As a member of the Niagara Frontier Reading Council you will receive the following benefits:

- *Reduced fees for NFRC Fall Conference and Brunches
- *NFRC Newsletter Spotlight
- *Professional Networking
- *Notification of all NFRC Activities
- * Complimentary membership in the New York State Reading Association (NYSRA)
- *Reduced registration at NYSRA Conference
- *Mini-Grant Opportunities.

If I am a member of the NFRC am I automatically a member of the International Reading Association?

No. By becoming a member of the Niagara Frontier Reading Council you receive a complimentary membership to the New York State Reading Association (NYSRA). The International Reading Association requires a separate membership.

What is the cost to attend the NFRC Fall Conference, Winter Brunch, and Spring Brunch?

Fees for the NFRC events vary but can always be found on our website www.theNFRC.org. They are also listed directly on the registration forms.

What are acceptable methods of payment?

The Niagara Frontier Reading Council can accept checks or money orders drawn on US funds only. Sorry no Canadian checks accepted. This information is also listed on the membership application/registration forms.

Where do I send my payment?

Membership fees as well as the NFRC Fall Conference fees can be sent to:

Carol Bush
Director of Membership, NFRC
57 Minard St.
Lockport, NY 14094

Winter and Spring Brunch fees can be sent to the chairs of the event. This information can be found on our website www.theNFRC.org and on the registration forms.

If I have already registered for an event but am unable to attend, what will happen to my fee?

The NFRC does not refund conference and brunch fees.