

Niagara Frontier Reading Council Winter Brunch

February 4, 2017 @ 8am
Classics V (2425 Niagara Falls Blvd, Amherst, NY)

Click here for directions:

Classics V

Amy Ludwig VanDerwater
Come join us and get a sneak-peak of her upcoming book.

Poems Are Teachers: How Poetry Helps Strengthen Our Writing in all Genres

Come learn how studying poetry allows readers to understand a poem's design all in one look. From one handful of carefully chosen words, students can see how a poem works line-by-line, discovering ways to both find ideas and play with sound. Come study poems, the most elegant writing teachers of all.

Agenda:

8:00-8:30 am Registration

8:30-9:30 am NFRC Welcome & Brunch

9:30- 11:30 am Presentation

11:30-11:45 am Q & A, discussion

11:45- 12:00 NFRC closing remarks

12:00-1:30 pm Professional Book Discussion:

Writers ARE Readers by Lester L. Laminack
and Reba M. Woodsworth

Donate new or gently used school supplies to support the Nicaragua Mission Project and be entered into a drawing to win a prize.

More information:

Cost: $30 members/ $35 nonmembers

Register at www.thenfrc.org/ by 1.29.17

Questions? Contact Kathleen Montesanti
kmontesanti5@gmail.com

A former fifth grade teacher, Amy Ludwig VanDerwater is author of FOREST HAS A SONG, EVERY DAY BIRDS, and the forthcoming READ! READ! READ!

She is also co-author of POETRY: BIG THOUGHTS IN SMALL PACKAGES and the forthcoming POEMS ARE TEACHERS. Amy has taught writing to teachers and students for eighteen years and blogs at The Poem Farm and Sharing Our Notebooks.

