

NFRC SPRING EVENT

Monica Burns presents.....

Literacy & Technology/ Pre-K-20

- Balance Print and Digital Texts in the Classroom
- Receive Strategies tied to College & Career Readiness Standards

NFRC Professional Book Discussion Group Pick-2018-19

Bring your computer!!

WIFI is available!!

Co-author with Pam Allyn, literacy expert.

Monica Burns, Ed.D., is an educational technology and curriculum consultant, author, and former New York City public school teacher. She visits schools across the country to support Pre-K-20 teachers to make technology integration meaningful and sustainable. Monica's website, ClassTechTips.com, helps educators focus on choosing "tasks before apps," promoting deep and purposeful learning with technology. (FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, RESEARCH MONICA BURNS ONLINE. The NFRC is excited to have this innovative educator share her expertise with us.)

Saturday April 6, 2019

8:45a.m.-11:45a.m.

Downtown Buffalo & Erie County Library

1 Lafayette Square Buffalo, NY 14203

Parking is FREE on Saturdays

AGENDA

8:45-9:15 registration, food, and vendors

9:15-9:30 NFRC Business

9:30-10:30 Monica Burns Presentation

10:30-10:45 Break

10:45-11:45 Presentation continues. Hands-on computer experience with support and answers to frequently asked questions/ Vendors/ Door Prizes.

Donate new or gently used school supplies or give a cash donation to support the Nicaragua Mission Project and be entered into a drawing to win a prize.

Earn 3 hrs. of CTLE credit

Register at www.thenfrc.org

Cost: members $39, non-members $45

Questions? Contact Sue Dubill at susandubill@gmail.com

Register by March 1, 2019 to get a chance to win a signed copy of her book.

